How digital marketing works

Register on Kompass.com

Add your company profile to Kompass.com using our company profile builder. You can select from 55k uniquely detailed product & service classifications, as well as upload detailed company & contact information.

With access to your own Kompass portal, you can then edit, update & manage your company profile at any time.

Boost your company profile

Build & enhance your profile on Kompass by showcasing your products & services. Our Booster package can be built to suit your requirements, whether you want to target companies locally, nationally or globally.

With Kompass data available in 73 countries across Europe, Asia-Pacific, Middle East & Africa and the Americas, Booster International will help you target markets in specific countries, with focused keywords & activity translations in 26 languages.

Flexible Top 3 & Display ads, which are linked to search results, are a great way to promote your business more effectively to the largest possible audience.

Drive relevant enquiries

You've got a great business and website, but they need to be found and this presents a significant challenge for any company with an online presence.

PPC is an online advertising model that allows companies to pay to display ads for their products & services, so they appear on Google when potential customers are searching for them online.

However managing successful PPC campaigns is a complex task that requires expert knowledge. With Booster Clicks we can help, offering you full management of the whole process, along with 1000 guaranteed & relevant visits to your company profile or website.

Find out who is visiting your website?

of website visitors will depart without leaving any contact information, making it difficult to recognise hot sales leads.

££££'s a year are spent in the UK on business websites, but very few companies are aware of who is visiting and how much value is in this information.

Get FREE IP website tracking

Generating revenue through IP website tracking is fast becoming a necessity for any business with an online presence and GatorLeads can provide a user friendly and cost-effective solution.

This service offered by our partner Spotler- the innovative marketing automation solution provider, and it is included FREE of charge with a Booster company profile on Kompass.com
